

Recently eliminated from the view provided with the item analysis was discrimination index information. This was the single most valuable piece of information available to us as instructors in understanding how an item worked. I realize I can still get at some of the info through the item analysis report but the previous display was ideal and extremely helpful. Please bring it back or give us an option on what is in the visual display.

Here's what we used to see:

